Update on Tungurahua Volcano

June 3, 2010 – 5:30 p.m.

LATEST UPDATE:

Provided by Instituto Geofísico Nacional: <http://www.igepn.edu.ec/>

- The Tungurahua Volcano's seismic activity remains very high. The activity remains similar to previous days, characterized by heavy explosions which have expelled rocks two kilometers below the level of the crater and created large ash plumes that are drifting in a westerly direction.

AIRPORT INFORMATION:

- At this time all airports in Ecuador remain open

REPORT OF AMERICAN CITIZENS AFFECTED:

- There are no reports to date of American Citizens affected by the volcanic activity.

Americans living or traveling in Ecuador are encouraged to register with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate through the State Department's travel registration website <https://travelregistration.state.gov> , and to obtain updated information on travel and security within Ecuador.

Americans without Internet access may register directly with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate. By registering, American citizens make it easier for the Embassy or Consulate to contact them in case of emergency. Please see the following links for local Warden Message information in Quito and Guayaquil, respectively: <http://ecuador.usembassy.gov/> and <http://guayaquil.usconsulate.gov/>.
